Type "0"

The screenshot shows a software application window with a light gray background. At the top, there is a header area with some text that is mostly cut off. Below the header, there is a search bar containing the number '0'. To the right of the search bar, there is a list of items, each preceded by a small square checkbox. The first item in the list is 'RAHO PIK 2'. Above the list, there is a horizontal navigation bar with several tabs: 'Sales & Purchase', 'Penajihan', 'RAHO' (which is highlighted in a white box), 'Catatan Internal', and 'Histori Voucher'. On the far right side of the window, there is a vertical scroll bar.
